of Negro Who Broke Into Her Home.

Miss Gertrude A. Engeman, living with her mother at No. 419 Tompkins avenue, Brooklyn, is an energetic and athletic young woman who doesn't LADIES! LOOK YOUNG, about. On her complaint, Magistrate Nash in the Gates Avenue Police Court, to-day held William Hudson, a negro, twenty-one years old, on a charge of burglary without bail.

Miss Emgeman was in the basement of her home about 8 o'clock last night when she heard a noise on the next floor. She ran up the stairs and met the burglar coming down the second flight with a suitcase in his hand.

He pushed her roughly aside and went out through the front door, on the run. The young woman kept right after him, yelling for help and the police. Windows went up, police whistles were tooted and people came tumbling out of their doors.

In a few moments there were a policy of the poli passengers were injured and number of others shaken up and hadly scared shortly before 9 o'clock this morning when a Putnam avenue and Halsey street trolley car, bound for York, missed the switch at Flatbush avenue and Livingston street and the rear end was thrown against an "L" pillar. The rear truck of the car was thrown off the track and the passengers sitting nearest the back plat-form received the greatest shock.

Gustav Denecke, forty years old, and living at No. 1005 Hancock street, was cut about the head by flying glass. Edward Tindale, thirty, of No. 105 Macdougal street, had his right leg injured, and Sophie Dugal, twenty-three years old, of No. 6 Covert street, was cut about the face. Emil Heas, the conductor, was thrown to the platform, hurting his shoulder. None of the in Aured would accept medical aid.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody Will Know.

In a few moments there were a hundred shouting, yelling, running men, women and children in pursuit. Policeman Peter Thornton heard the whistles a block away and sprinted for the fleeing burglar. The crowd gained on the negro, who stopped for a moment and threatened those nearest with a motion toward his hip pocket. Then he ran again until a newcomer tripped him and he went down in a heap. Miss Engeman identified the clothing in the suitcase as some from her home.

Don't stay gray! Look pung! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking the gray hair disappears; after another the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

Getting There

An unusually attractive collection of modish and serviceable leather hand bags in this pre-Easter sale. The bag illustrated is of pin-seal leather with pannier handle. Fitted with new hinged mirror, writing tablet, pencil and card case with dainty gilt chain attached to frame of bag to prevent loss. Exquisite antisue moire silk lining gives the finishing touch of beauty. Green, brown, tan, purple, navy and gray; also black.

"He gets there!" An Americanism that is one of the most expressive in any language. The man who GETS there! What a volume of praise to be to upon an individual! He arrives, reaches his goal, makes the home run, succeeds. The world welcomes with open arms such an one. It hovers around him and listens intently to his most trivial utterance, that it may discover HOW he gets there.

Now, "The Big Store" is a daily illustration of the truth of this axiom.

Its broad aisles are crowded with people who flock to it because it GETS THERE. It accomplishes. All you have to do is to enter its welcoming doors and, like Aladdin, wish for something when, presto! it has been done! Its management has anticipated your wants, you find. If it is to be found nowhere else in town, "THE BIG STORE" HAS IT, nearly always, for "The Big Store" "gets there."

Furthermore, it is so easy for YOU to get there—to get TO "The Big Store." You can travel under the earth, on its surface, or above it, as you prefer. Or ride in one of "The Big Store's" FREE "busses. So you see it is easy for YOU to get there, too.
